Preface

Bangladesh is small country with huge population. Due to a large population economic and cultural diversity is also vey high in the country. The country attracts plenty of tourist population from home and abroad to see the wonderful landscape and people. The country is also diversified with historical artifacts and landscapes which is immense interest to the people of home and abroad. However, the information and data are plenty in the country but not easily available by the tourist population for their facilities and comfort. Thus, the present volume is an effort to collect data and compile them in a suitable manner to facilitate tourists.

The present volume is tourism related data collected and compiled to the interest of the people who are visiting the country. Tourism related data are well diversified because of diversified interest of the people. It traces the physical condition of the country, social and economic condition and cultural diversity. In Physical condition, landscapes and land cover, climatic condition including weather and temperature. In social condition people's behavior attitudes and values are important factors of tourism development but very difficult to generate data. Economic condition can be explained easily in terms of economic contribution of the sector, particularly to GDP. Cultural diversity available throughout the country for several thousand of years. These are still in glorious condition and very actractive sites for Tourisum. Some of these sites are mentioned in this volumn.

Tremendous growth and development have taken place in Bangladesh since 1971. Along side tourism has also developed. Particularly the domestic tourism sector developed rapidly. And its impact on the economy is also visible. Although, tourism sectors contribution to economy is still low. In the foreseeable future Bangladesh will generate lots of economic contribution and the sector will be developed properly. There are several tourism sectors developed in the country from its diversified coastal region to a narrow hilly strip along the eastern side. Besides, there are a huge flood plain in the middle with tremendous facilities of tourism.

The volume presents data on tourist accommodation facilities, (hotels, motels and resorts) in all the District and tourist sites which is very basic requirements of the tourists. Then the sites of restaurant and eating facilities were mentioned. All four modes of transport, Air, Rail, water and road were listed with distance from important tourist sites. These are basic facilities for those who are visiting Bangladesh.

There are a large number of tour operators in the country to facilitate tourists. The Tour Guides are also huge in Number. Which together play an important role in tourism. All these operators and guides ere systematically listed in the data volume. The volume contains the operators address and Cell phone number.

The volume also contains other tourist facilities available in the country so that the tourist can enjoy the facilities. Particularly to reach a destination and stay there comfortably and safely This volume will help greatly. Other then these the volume will help research and publication of the scholars. The volume would be regularly updated by the Tourism Board.
